

J ALERT (transmission of information and measures of the school) EN

愛知県立にしお特別支援学校 R5. 4

A	If the missile flies over Japan, If the missile lands in a maritime region outside Japan's maritime zone	B	The missile landed in the maritime region or landed on Japanese territory
----------	---	----------	---

① Alert (before goes to school)
Additional information after the alert	At school	School bus	Students who goes alone to school
A	Alert released : regular class	Alert released until 6:30 : normal bus during alert : no bus	goes to school normally
B	school closed

② Alert (during the journey)
		bus and parents : shelter in a safe place public transport: follow the instructions of the officer
		By walk, bicycle :shelter in the safe place
Additional information after the alert	At school	School bus	Students who goes alone to school
A	send message about how to go to school	we send message when there is delay	vir a escola normal caso houver atraso no transporte publico, os professores irao bucar os alunos na estacao
B	school closed : parents will have to pick up students from school	Wait at school or somewhere safe	before boarding public transport→parents have to pick up students at the location after boarding →teachers will pick up students who come by walk or by bicycle to the station: go to the nearest location

※there are cases which parents will have to pick up students at the bus stop

③Alert (during a class)
Additional information after the alert	At school	School bus	Students who goes alone to school
A	As soon as security is confirmed, we will restart classes	go home :school bus	go home normally
B	Wait for the parents in a safe place.	go home: no school bus	after we confirm security, parents have to pick up students at school

☆ The J-Alert is dispatched by Aichi Prefecture when a missile is expected to land or pass through the Chubu/Kinki/Chugoku region. If this alert is not announced in the Aichi region, regular classes will be held.

☆The correspondence above is a guideline. In each case, we will send messages about the measurements.